

	Session 1: 9:00-10:30AM EDT		Session 2: 1:00-2:30PM EDT		Session 3: 6:00-7:30PM EDT
July 1			Welcome and Opening Session
July 2	Jason's Journey to Leadership and the Golden Fleece Rhonda Knight	Words that Hurt, Words that Smile Mary Marin	Don't Become Caesarified! John Lombardini	Control or Create John Esposito	Campfire Mixer Malliron Hodge
July 3	Democratic Agency, Freedom and Utopian World-Building Scarlett Kingsley	Creativity and Imagination in Democratic Education Valia Loutrianaki	Storytelling and Public Life Jeff Beneker	Let's Kill Caesar (and Then Bury Him) Rhonda Knight	The "Leaders" of the Dance James Collins	Democracy on Trial (Ancient Drama) Irene Morrison-Moncure
July 4	Democratic Leadership is Language Irene Theodoropoulou	Promoting Democracy through Public Speaking and Thinking Valia Loutrianaki
July 5	From Political Polarization to Reconciliation Scarlett Kingsley	The Authority to Lead John Lombardini	The Teachings of Vanity Ashleigh Coren	Conflict Resolution: Contradictions in the Good John Esposito	Playing the Tyrant James Collins	Democracy on Trial (Modern Drama) Irene Morrison-Moncure
July 6	Democratic Leadership is Empathy Irene Theodoropoulou	Designing Educational Programs for Active Citizenship Valia Loutrianaki	Don't Become Caesarified! John Lombardini	Let's Kill Caesar (and Then Bury Him) Rhonda Knight	Gender, Identity, and Power Ashleigh Coren	How to Be a Leader Jeff Beneker
July 7	From Political Polarization to Reconciliation Scarlett Kingsley	Human Rights Court Mary Marin	How to Be a Leader Jeff Beneker	Character and Mimesis: Leading by Virtuous Example John Esposito	Playing the Tyrant James Collins	Motivations to Lead Irene Morrison-Moncure
July 8			Closing Session			